

What can I wish that this day may bring to me? A few friends who understand me, and yet remain my friends. A work to do which has real value, without which the world would feel poorer . . . an understanding heart . . . a story of something beautiful the hand of man has made . . . a little leisure . . . and the patience to wait for the coming of these things, with the wisdom to know them when they come.

MR. AND MRS. M. E. PHILLIPS

Chandler and Cagle Repeat Nuptial Vows

At home at 2017 Torrance boulevard following their marriage earlier this month are Burton Wade Chandler Jr., and his bride, the former Miss Dorothy Cagle of Pomona and formerly of Torrance.

The couple exchanged wedding vows in a simple ceremony performed in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The bridegroom, a son of Burton Wade Chandler Sr., of Dallas, Texas.

OPEN HOUSE

Approximately 35 guests attended the Open House held Monday for Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Phillips of 1808 W. 24th street at the home of their grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Shelhart at 25420 Oak street. The party was in celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Lovely gifts were presented to the happy couple and a delectable cake was cut and served with coffee.

Married in Wichita, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips came to Lomita in 1920 from Guthrie, Oklahoma to establish their home.

Repeat Vows in Arizona

In a Christmas Day ceremony performed in Yuma, Arizona, Donald Dean Hornback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean F. Hornback of 1335 W. 227th street, took as his bride Miss Jean French of Redondo Beach.

The former Miss French is in her junior year at Redondo Union High School. Mr. Hornback was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of S'48 and is employed with Pacific Smelting Company. The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Hornback will live in Torrance.

CDA MEMBERS FETE HOSPITAL PATIENTS

A Christmas party was enjoyed by 30 patients in Los Angeles County Harbor General Hospital on Thursday afternoon when Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, entertained their adopted ward.

Fruit, candy, and Christmas gifts were distributed to the patients.

Heading the Court's philanthropy committee is Mrs. M. N. Felker, and she was assisted by Mesdames J. J. MacDonald, John Melville, and Howard Owen, in giving the Christmas party.

More than half the funds for this party were contributed by three girls, Anne Wiles, Judy Wright, and Janel Beeman, this circus they staged last summer. The three young "producer-directors," after looking about for a worthy cause to which they might donate their profits, gave their circus fund to Mrs. Felker for the use of the CDA philanthropy committee in giving the Christmas party at Harbor General hospital.

Mrs. Leonard Young was hostess to the Court's study club on Monday evening of last week at her home, 2355 El Dorado avenue.
